

AIMAN & ZAKI

THE HIDDEN LEGACY

Agung

Aiman finds an old, wrinkled treasure map hidden inside his grandfather's wooden chest. He rushes to show it to his best friend, Zaki.

Aiman and Zaki walk into the lush green forest, following the map's first clue.

They reach a river mentioned on the map.
The current is strong, but a fallen log forms a bridge.

On the other side, they spot strange footprints. Zaki thinks it might be an animal; Aiman thinks it's another clue.

They find the legendary tree marked on the map—huge, ancient, with carvings from long ago.

Behind the tree roots, they discover a tiny wooden door partially covered by moss.

They crawl through a narrow tunnel decorated with carvings showing Aiman's ancestor on adventures.

A stone pedestal blocks their path with a simple rotating symbol puzzle. Zaki solves it quickly.

The ground opens and reveals a wooden chest filled with old coins, a compass, and a journal from Aiman's ancestor.

The journal hints at even more adventures. Aiman and Zaki look at each other—ready for the next journey.

THE END