

Two Worlds, One Destiny

A Children's Fantasy Adventure

ASRUL AFFENDY NORIZAM

Once upon a time, there lived a pair of twins in a poor family in a small village.

They were named Rexiest and Alice, very close even though they were still babies.

Their parents were poor, unable to raise both children together.

With a heavy heart, they gave Amir to a foster family in the city.

Alice, on the other hand, lived with her biological parents in the modest village.

ALICE: GROWING UP IN THE MAGIC FOREST VILLAGE

REXIEST: GROWING UP
IN THE FLOATING CITY

Years passed, Amir and Aina grew up without knowing that they were actually siblings.

One night, a red moon appeared and the sky shone very strangely.

Rexiest and Alice were sucked into another world called the magical Eldoria.

There, animals could talk and trees glowed in the dark at night.

An old wizard said that they were chosen to save the world together.

However, the shadow dragon had stolen the protective light crystal of the entire great kingdom.

The background of the page is white with decorative gold glitter patterns. There are two large, circular, semi-transparent gold glitter areas, one in the top-left corner and one in the bottom-right corner. The glitter consists of fine, shimmering particles of varying sizes, creating a textured, sparkling effect.

Continued...